

THOUGHTS OF KARL WALLEDA
ON MAKING HIS LAST TIGHTROPE WALK BETWEEN TWO TOWER BLOCKS IN PUERTO RICO

not far to go now . .

CHRISTMAS IN THE WELLGATE CENTRE

See those lights
they symbolise the birth of Christ because when the wise men came they were guided by lights flashing lights
there was so little room in the inn Jesus was born in the disco.

HOW I WON MASTERMIND

By a Mafia Boss

On arrival at the studios

I decided that the other three contestants
"knew too much" and had them executed.

DISCUSSION ABOUT FREUD
OVER AN EVENING MEAL.

DC-9

I seem to be preoccupied with the idea of Death sitting here above the wings which move in the "slight turbulence we are experiencing at present " I try to think of Statistics but imagine the Starboard one coming off

Husband

I think Freud made a bit of a cock

Wife

Husband

- (d) Because art isn't silly but no one pays any attention to it
- (e)
- (f) Because there's no money in art

THE NEW CAR

She was used to turning into Marchfield switching off
and free-wheeling down the hill

OBSERVATION IN CROLLA'S CAFE

It's ironic
what with Scotlands track record in coronaries
that the sugared doughnut trolley owes its mobility
to the clever fitment of hospital bed wheels.

I remember seeing her passing the end of Hillcrest face frozen in a quizzical look she was headed for three parked cars the salesman must have neglected to mention the advancements in steering lock technology the brakes were probably servo-assisted.
